This groundbreaking recording by virtuoso clarinetist-conductor Jonathan Cohler follows Weber's original scores based on the most recent research. Hear Weber's Concertino, clarinet concertos, and his two most popular opera overtures as Weber intended them. Cohler's prize-winning duo partner Rasa Vitkauskaite is soloist on the Liszt-Weber Polonaise brillante.

“Every generation has its clarinet soloist – Stadler, Baermann, De Peyer, Stoltzman, etc. In our time, that person is Jonathan Cohler. His body of recorded clarinet music is nothing short of breathtaking; all gorgeous soloistic playing. Plus he is a fine conductor. If he was also a composer, we’d be comparing him to Leonard Bernstein.” Michael Drapkin
Author of “Symphonic Repertoire for the Bass Clarinet”

“[Vitkauskaite generates] scintillating pianism... a remarkable display of technique and sensitivity”
—Fanfare
